

King David

Whole Heart Freedom!

Some things I have learned from King David:

I may have a loving relationship with God and not run away from reverent familiarity. (2 Samuel 7:18)

I am free to pour out my heart to God. (Psalm 42)

My Father is beautiful. (Psalm 27:4)

An orthodox understanding of the Holy Spirit.
(Psalm 51; 139; 143)

It does not depend upon "the man who wills, or the man who runs, but on God Who shows mercy."
(Psalm 103/Ephesians 2:1-10)

To worship God freely.

- lifting holy hands with the utmost respect
- recalling and reciting with intelligent awareness
- with gratefulness and emotional overflowing
- individual and communal anticipation of connection

Joyfully using my gifts with a deep commitment to love.

In what ways is your spirit set free when you are alone?
When you are with others? When you are with other worshippers?
