

INQUIRY & CONVERSATION

Science/Philosophy/Theology

and the interpretation of human history within our mutual search for meaning

All human inquiry finds home-base in one or more of three discovery disciplines: science, philosophy, and theology. We draw from these thought pursuits to establish our personal world views and/or belief systems. The fourth area: the GodStory, was meant to be an anchor to discern what is true.

SCIENCE/organizing and testing facts through observable processes

Physics

Chemistry

Mathematics

Genetics

Cosmos

Origins

Geology

Archeology

PHILOSOPHY/the historic and current human search for wisdom

Humanity

Civilization

Sociology

Self-expression

Quality of Life

Beauty: Art & Creativity

Politics

THEOLOGY/historic religious dogmas regarding reality and existence

Nature & Plan of God

Purpose of Man

Creation/flood/Word of God

Universal sin & Deliverance

Jesus Messiah & His Kingdom

Realities of the Soul

Life in the Spirit

Heaven & the Eternal state

God has provided THE GOD STORY to guide us in our journey to discovering truth, and ultimately a satisfied mind.

*We search to discover what the one woven story teaches about any and every particular subject, and in so doing come face to face with the Kingdom of Heaven.

 Nowhere in the so-called Old and New Testaments are they identified as such. There is literally “one testament” to the power and presence and heart of the One True God: the Living God!