- PHASES OF KINGDOM SPIRITUAL LIFE -

We all begin our lives in UNBELIEF. There is simply no way we can move toward spirituality without His work in our life. You can be sure that an awakening of heart begins and ends with God. Read Ephesians 2:1-5. What appears to be the extent of our spiritual death?

While we definitely respond to Him in faith - that faith is a gift from above (Ephesians 2:8). As we awaken, our eyes are open to a whole new paradigm - the chance to follow our King wherever He leads us - and to receive the reward of everlasting life (Isaiah 26:19).

We are brought to a crossroads once our spiritual sight begins to expand. If we bend our will to His will we become Kingdom servants. If we resist and continue to hold to a self-centered universe, we remain spiritual children, and the blessing of fulfilling our destiny is squandered.

A kingdom life is often not spectacular. It is very imperfect, and every bit as much involves dying to self as it does slaying dragons. A Kingdom life is a life of faithfulness to the King. This is why we need to understand what it means to have a pure heart, to know God, to do kindness, and grow life. This is why we need to ENGAGE our connection with the Living God.
