

THE BOOKS OF MOSES

God chose a people in whom He would display His power and His glory. Abraham became not only the father of the Hebrews through his son Isaac, but the father of the Arabs through his son, Ishmael. The Jews were not created because they were better than the other nations, but because God would bring redemption into the world - and this nation would birth the Son of God!

Genesis gets us in touch with our origins, and answers many questions about existence, the nature of God and man, and the conditions in which we find ourselves. It also explains the creation of the chosen people - chosen for God's very specific purposes.

Exodus is the story of how God brings His captive people out of the land of Egypt. Israel sees God's power and is taught how to worship God through the mechanism of the Law of Moses and the Tabernacle.

Leviticus explains the priesthood and the sacrifices, all designed to draw His people's heart close to His own heart.

Numbers talks about the Jews as they wander in the wilderness, and in the midst of their grumbling, are taught to love God no matter what the circumstance.

Deuteronomy outlines the moral, civil, and ceremonial laws that were given to the Hebrews to set them apart, protect them, and deliver their hearts!

The following guide will help you get the most from your study of each of these five books. God uses Moses to illuminate His holiness, reveal His plans for redemption, and to display His incredible patience with the human race.

Welcome to the book of Genesis!

To begin your study of Genesis, meditate on the book's content represented in the overview chart below. What are the four major events of chapters 1-11? How do each of these events reflect the theme origins of the human race? In chapters 11-50 we encounter the origins of the chosen race. Notice the theme phrase at the bottom of the overview chart: "and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed!" What does this phrase mean to you? It will be an important aspect of our study in Genesis. Also notice the Scriptures listed within the overview chart. Take this opportunity to consider each one, relating the theme words to the appropriate Scripture. What have you learned so far about Genesis?

"In you all the families of the earth shall be blessed." 12:3

The book of Genesis gives us a wealth of insight into the character of God and nature of man. Two key verses are prominent. For chapters 1-11 we have chosen 1:26 reflecting the emphasis on the origin of the human race, and for chapters 12-50 we have chosen 12:2 which states the covenant God made with Abraham, father of the chosen race.

Genesis opens by explaining the foundation that the eternal God "is" and the book assumes no other need to substantiate His existence. It closes with a promise of deliverance from the bondage in Egypt (50:24). Genesis begins with the faith principle (Hebrews 11:2, 6).

Open your heart as you read!

God's sovereignty is revealed in Genesis. The outcome of man depends completely on the grace of God. He has chosen to select a people through Christ's blood despite the universal death that sin has required. God is the initiator of all that is good, man is the responder to all He has decreed. Compare the theories of evolution to the plausibility of Intelligent Design as you read!

KEY BACKGROUND on the book of Genesis

AUTHOR

Genesis does not state who; tradition and other Scriptures assume it. We must keep in mind that Genesis is a part of the Pentateuch, the first five books of Law. As a unit, Moses is said to have composed it (Exodus 17:14; 24:4; 34:27) and other Old Testament books bear witness to this fact (Joshua 1:7, 8; 8:31; 1 Kings 2:3; 2 Kings 14:6). New Testament writers also make this clear (Acts 3:22; 13:39; 15:1,5,21; Romans 10:5, 19; 1 Corinthians 9:9; 2 Corinthians 3:15). Most convincing is the testimony of Christ (John 5:46-47).

Moses was not present through all of the events of Genesis by any means, but he was the one God chose to record the data. Moses was well qualified for the task (Acts 7:22). We are indebted to Moses for the only authoritative account of man's beginning. Many philosophies and theories come and go, but the Word of God has never been disproved. It is standing the test of time!

DATE

Sometime during the wilderness wanderings is probable. Moses is said to have been born in 1520 B.C. and lived 120 years. From 1 Kings 6:1 and Judges 11:26, we place the date of the Exodus at 1445 B.C. This allows time for the compiling of the remainder of the Pentateuch during the "wanderings" of the children of Israel (Numbers).

HISTORY

The book relates how Israel was selected from among the nations of the world to become God's chosen people. This explains why the author devoted 38 chapters to the chosen race, (covering a mere 350 years), but only 11 chapters to the human race, even though this section covers over 3,000 years. God's sovereign selection of His people (12:2) must be seen as the primary purpose of the book of Genesis.

Following the custom of designating a book by its opening word or words the Jews called this Bere'shith or "in the beginning" because it describes the beginnings of the universe, life, mankind, Sabbath, marriage, family, work, childhood, sin, pain, death, murder, sacrifice, races, languages, agriculture, city life, nations, government, the chosen people and salvation.

Why Study the book of Genesis?

1. After reading and studying this book, you will see more clearly that Genesis is indeed a book of beginnings. This study of God's Word can encourage you to make a new beginning with God as you learn what it means to truly walk with Him, day by day and year by year.
2. To answer crucial questions about man's origin, man's plight, man's nature, etc.
3. To gain a correct foundation and reference base for our study of the other 65 books of God's Word.
4. To address our need to view the Lord God in His sovereignty and to see the awesome magnificence of His creating and ruling power as He glorifies Himself.

Effective reading results in meditation!

How to get a lot out of the God Story.

I would like to suggest to you that reading the bible should be an animating experience for your soul. It really can be a supernatural event! Mostly because the Holy Spirit wants the Word to come alive to us. Before you engage these study guides each day, take a moment and ask God's Spirit to teach you. It also helps if you have a quiet space to spend your time reading, processing, and thinking about God's Word in your life.

How to read carefully and critically.

There are a few things you can look for and note with a pen or a highlighter as you read. It will help you as you title chapters and choose key verses.

CONTRASTS...noting uniqueness by observing differences in perspectives.

COMPARISONS...observing similarities between ideas or thoughts.

REPEATING WORDS & PHRASES...often reveal the main point or subjects involved.

RELATED ENTITIES...similar thoughts or ideas establish of the "flow" of the passage.

WORD PICTURES...here ask the question "Why this illustration?"

STRONG STATEMENTS often lead to a main point of application.

QUESTIONS...who, what, when, where, why, and how remain powerful observing tools.

KEY WORDS are words that reflect the main thought or idea of a passage.

Find your own "code" to note these in your bible (using underlining, boxes, highlighting; etc.).

Choose a study version that you don't mind writing in, and connect the parts that will help you see continuity in the message of each book. Before you choose a chapter title, it helps to make ten or fifteen observations in each chapter and choose one or two verses that stand out as you read.

How to title a chapter!

After you have spent 15-20 minutes making observations in a chapter you will have isolated several key words or phrases. Take actual words from the text and assemble them into a 2-4 word title that reflects the essence of the story, word pictures, or teachings from that chapter.

Be creative and use your sense of humor and innate cleverness! Record them on the study sheets that follow, and when you are done with a book, choose a few of your favorites and write them at the top of chapters in your study bible.

How to choose a key verse!

Key verses may be set apart in brackets and should summarize the central point of a passage or just be a verse that you like! Several may be chosen during reading and then selectively narrowed into which verse best reflects one you will remember - or one that reflects the argument of that chapter!

These suggestions can help you get the most out of these study guides. Enjoy!

KEY QUESTIONS

1. How did man differ from the rest of God's creation?

2. On whom does the responsibility for the fall of mankind rest, Adam or Eve?

3. What is 3:20-24 trying to teach us?

4. What specifically was the cause of the universal flood?

5. Why didn't God desire for man to continue to speak one language?

6. What do we learn about the nature of God from these chapters? The nature of man?

7. Where do you feel you stand on the relationship between evolution and intelligent design?

What about today?

1. To what degree do you accept the Bible as literally and historically true?

2. How do we evidence the effects of the curse after the fall in our lives?

3. How does man reveal a continued desire to build towers (present-day examples)?

4. What does this teach you about expectations in living a life pleasing to God?

We all are sons of Adam and as a result, partake in the sin of Adam (Romans 5:12).

How is this evidenced by your nature in your daily activities?

KEY QUESTIONS:

1. What would you choose as the three or four major events of Abraham's life and why do you consider them prominent? How do you think Abraham felt during each event?

2. Compare the promise to Abraham (12:1-3) with 1 Samuel 7:8-17 and Jeremiah 31:27-34. How are they similar? In what ways do they differ?

3. Why would you call Abraham a man of faith?

What about today?

1. What would you describe from your own life with God that would indicate you are a man or woman of faith?

2. What can you specifically do to grow in your life of faith (by looking at Abraham's example)?

3. Read Hebrews 11:8-22 for further thoughts on the subject of faith!

KEY QUESTIONS:

1. What would you choose as the three or four major events of Isaac's life and why would you consider them prominent?

2. How do you think Isaac felt during each event?

3. Where have you seen 26:3-5 before?

4. 25:23 describes the beginning of a struggle that will last hundreds of years. What is that struggle? (Note 27:36, 41).

What about today?

1. Read Romans 9. What is God's perspective on the twins? Relate this to the key phrase we have chosen for this book.

2. Also read Galatians 4:21-31. What is taught in this passage about the choice of God?

3. Just as God provided a sacrifice (Yahweh-Jireh) in 22:13-14, He has provided the "satisfaction" for our sin through is Son - the Lord Jesus (Hebrews 9:11-14).

KEY QUESTIONS:

1. How would you summarize Jacob's character in a few words?

2. What insights do we gain from Hebrews 12:14-17 concerning Jacob and Esau?

3. How is Jacob's dream connected with the original covenant with Abraham (Genesis 12)?

4. What does the dream (28) and wrestling (32) reveal about Jacob's growth in his knowledge of God?

5. How do we see God's sovereignty in Jacob's life? Through Laban's life?

What about today?

1. Compare your spiritual life with that of Jacob. What similarities and/or differences are evident to you?

2. Again read Hebrews 12:14-17. In what way does this exhortation reveal any needs in your own life as a follower of Christ?

KEY QUESTIONS:

1. Briefly trace Jacob's (Israel) and Esau's (Edom) conflict through the years: Numbers 20:14-20; 1 Samuel 14:47; 1 Kings 11:14-25; 2 Chronicles 20:22; 21:8; and Obadiah. (Herod the Great in the days of Christ was an Edomite!)

2. Read Obadiah to observe how God deals with Esau (Edom). Do these actions seem fair?

3. What did the renewed covenant at Bethel involve (35)?

4. Why was Jacob named Israel?

What about today?

1. From studying Esau we see a vivid illustration of the principle of iniquity visiting generations to come (Deuteronomy 5:9,10). What are the implications for raising children today? Also note Matthew 10:24,25.

2. Jacob spent his life learning about God through his faith. Jot down a brief description of how you view your faith at the present time in relationship to the life of Jacob.

KEY QUESTIONS:

1. What do we learn about Jacob's latter days?

2. Why was it necessary to go down into Egypt?

3. Particularly note Israel's (Jacob) dying prophecy about his sons (49:1-33). This represents the twelve tribes of Israel that will play a part in the conquest and settlement of the land recorded in Joshua. From which of these twelve tribes did Jesus come?

What about today?

1. What does 45:5 reveal about Joseph's heart? What lesson does it give us as we consider our own growth?

2. Note God's confirmation in 46:3,4. What does this reveal about the slavery to come? Our slavery to sin?

3. What does 48:15-22 reveal about God's sovereign choice?

4. Familiarize yourself with Jacob's blessing of the twelve tribes. A basic understanding now will help you in future study!

GENESIS FAMILY ORIGINS

This is a study of these six patriarch's family origins throughout the Scriptures.
Use it to do a topical study as you seek to learn more about God and men!

Summarize in your own words a central lesson you learn from each patriarch:

ADAM

REPRESENTATIVE OF FALLEN HUMANITY

Genesis 2:19-23; 3:8,9,17,20,21; 4:1,25; 5:1-5; 1 Chronicles 1:1; Job 31:33; Luke 3:38; Romans 5:14;
1 Corinthians 15:22,45; 1 Timothy 1:13,14.

NOAH

EXAMPLE OF ONE WHO RECEIVED GRACE AND DELIVERANCE

Genesis 5:29; 6:8-22; 7:1-24; 8:1-20;9:1-29; 1 Chronicles 1:1; Isaiah 54:9; Ezekiel 14:14,20;
Hebrews 11:7; 1 Peter 3:20; 11 Peter 2:5

ABRAHAM

FATHER OF THOSE BOUGHT BACK THROUGH FAITH

Genesis 11:26-31; 12:1-18; 13:4,14; 14:19; 15:1-18; 16:15,16; 17:5-7; 18:19; 22:1-20; 25:8;
Exodus 2:24; 6:8; Leviticus 26:42; Numbers 32:11; Psalm 105:6; Isaiah 29:22; Ezekiel 33:24; Luke 1:55;
3:8; 19:9; John 8:58; Romans 4:1-3,9,10-13,16; Galatians 3:6-9, 16-18; Hebrews 6:13; James 2:21-23.

ISAAC

SON OF PROMISE

Genesis 17:19-21; 21:4, 12; 25:5; 26:12,27; 28; 35:28,29; Exodus 3:6; Leviticus 26:42; Joshua 24:3,4; Psalm 105:9; Romans 9:7-10; Galatians 4:27-29; Hebrews 11:9,17,18,20; James 2:21.

JACOB

SON OF SOVEREIGN CHOICE

Genesis 25:26,27; 27; 28:10-22; 29:20; 35:22-29; 49; Exodus 2:24; Leviticus 26:42; Psalm 105:6; John 4:12; Acts 7:11-15; Romans 9:10-13; Hebrews 11:21

JOSEPH

SON OF SOVEREIGN CIRCUMSTANCES

Genesis 30:24,25; 37:39-50; (Key verses - 45:4-8); Exodus 1:6; Psalm 105:16-22; Acts 7:8-18; Hebrews 11:22; Revelation 7:8.

SOVEREIGNTY

Read 1 Corinthians 8:6 as you begin.

Sovereignty defined: Supreme excellence or an example of it. Supreme power, freedom from external control, or; autonomous controlling influence. When speaking of the sovereignty of God we might say that He exercises complete control that transcends the whims and transitory circumstances of men.

Here are some passages that reflect the supreme influence of the Master of Mankind!

What do you think?

- 1 Chronicles 29:11 Supreme in ownership!
- Revelation 4:11 Supreme over all that is created!
- Psalms 103:19 Supreme as Ruler!
- Romans 11:33-36 Supreme in effective will!
- Philippians 2:13 Supreme over human will!
- 1 John 5:14 Supreme in effective prayer!

What you feel should be our God response in light of these passages:

Romans 8:35-39

Philippians 4:4-7

Romans 12:1,2

Deuteronomy 33:26-27 (Also note Luke 22:31)

John 1:13 (Also note John 6:37,44,65)

SOME GOOD QUESTIONS

1. What part does man have in finding salvation?

2. What reason does a Christ-followers have for being anxious?

3. What right does mankind have in asserting ownership over our possessions?

4. How do you assert yourself as supreme when it comes to the choices and events of your life?

5. Have you learned what it means to rest in God's sovereign authority?

6. Do you find your security in His ultimate control?

7. Do you feel you are being humbled before God? A closing thought for your meditation.

"If Christ is not valued above all, He is not valued at all."

4 GENESIS ATTRIBUTES

The following study considers the attributes of God as they are revealed in Genesis. An attribute is similar to a character quality in that it is inseparably a part of God.

It is difficult to find examples in Scripture of one attribute of God where another is not also revealed.

A ALL KNOWING

He Promises Concern.....
Genesis 15:5, 16:10-12; 18:10-24 and 21:1,2; 25:23.

T TOTALLY HOLY

He Commands His Children to be Holy....
Genesis 3:8-10 (consider 2:25); 17:1; 18:19

T TOTALLY PRESENT

Joseph.....He is there no matter what the circumstances...
Skim Through Genesis 37-50 in the N.I.V. (also the attached study on sovereignty)

R RIGHTEOUSLY TRUE AND JUST

Sodom and Gomorrah.....His standards and His resolve are as constant as Himself...
Genesis 18:22-33.

I IMMUTABLE (UNCHANGEABLE)

Genesis 22:15-18 (Isaiah 46:3-4; Malachi 3:6).

B BENEVOLENT

Hagar and Ishmael (even though Ishmael was the son of the flesh, not the son of the promise)
Genesis 16:10,11; 21:13-20; Isaiah 49:14-16a; (also note His covenant with creation Genesis 8:21; 9:8-17).

U UNBOUND

The only way God is 'bound' is that He will perform what He has spoken!
Genesis 17:18 'I will establish my covenant between Me and you.'
Numbers 23:19; 1 Samuel 15:29 (unchanging); Isaiah 25:1; in the words of Jesus
(Matthew 5:17-18; Matthew 24:35; Mark 13:31).

T TOTALLY POWERFUL

Genesis 15:13-21 His power transcends even the unbelievable!
Example: The ability (or inability) to bear children -- Genesis 16:2, 25:21; 29:31-35; 30:2,17,22.

E ETERNAL

'In the beginning...God!' - Genesis 1:1; Revelation 1:8, 22:13 -- All knowing -- knows past, present, and future. Eternal...is past, present, and future. Compare these two.

S SOVEREIGN

Joseph; Rebekah
Genesis 24:12-15 N.I.V.

SUMMARY

Consider the list of attributes as they compare to these references: Isaiah 43:1-3; 10-13; 44:6-8; 45:21-24a; 46:8-10,116. We must continually consider, behold, and worship the God of Heaven as He has revealed Himself to us! We worship Him in Spirit and Truth!
