

CONSCIENCE 11/ Do not crave what belongs to another

How does God feel about justice?

What should be together with justice if it is true?

Micah 6:8 *He has told you, O man, what is good;
And what does the LORD require of you
But to do justice, to love kindness,
And to walk humbly with your God?*

What does it mean to do what is just toward others?

What does loving kindness look like in our hearts and in our actions?

How does a person walk humbly, and what actions and attitudes go with this?

What is the difference between justice and fairness?

For youngers:

What are the things you wish you had that you don't have now?

How is it fair that someone should have something you want for yourself?

What happens inside when you want something so bad you can almost taste it?

What Jesus says about our hearts in Matthew 5: (so awesome in the Message!)

“You're blessed when you're at the end of your rope.
With less of you there is more of God and his rule.

You're blessed when you feel you've lost what is most dear to you.
Only then can you be embraced by the One most dear to you.

“You're blessed when you're content with just who you are—no more, no less.
That's the moment you find yourselves proud owners of everything that can't be bought.

“You're blessed when you've worked up a good appetite for God.
He's food and drink in the best meal you'll ever eat.

“You're blessed when you care. At the moment of being 'careful,' you find yourselves cared for.

“You're blessed when you get your inside world—your mind and heart—put right.
Then you can see God in the outside world.

“You're blessed when you can show people how to cooperate instead of compete or fight.
That's when you discover who you really are, and your place in God's family.
